For a small island, Jersey’s full of different species of wildlife - some of them found only in our nine by five miles. It’s a story that’s being told by Jordan, the ‘Jersey Naturalist’ a 26-year old ecologist and countryside ranger who writes about the island wildlife he finds and identifies, attracting more than 10,000 local followers.

The wild beauty of Jersey’s rugged north coast is best seen at sunrise. It’s an experience that’s part of a normal day for Aaron, whose flock of Manx Loaghtan sheep are part of a National Trust for Jersey countryside management initiative to maintain the natural coastal habitats.

Foodie

Everything’s closer in Jersey - including our local food. This is an island where Jersey Royals can go from field to fork in hardly more than a day, where the tide brings an abundance of fresh shellfish, crabs and lobsters close to the island’s shores, and where you can forage for wild sea herbs along the coast. Take time to savour the authentic taste of Jersey everywhere from farm shops and field-side stalls to Michelin-starred feasts at top-rated restaurants.

Relaxing

Jersey’s a small island but you’ll find plenty of space to breathe here, from walking along calm beaches in the fresh sea air to invigorating cliff path walks on paths lined with sweet-smelling gorse and wild flowers and exploring the peaceful gardens at Samares Manor or the Eric Young Orchid Foundation. Or perhaps you’d prefer to switch off at a luxury spa - Jersey has several top-rated spas, including the Ayurvedic Ayush retreat at the Hotel de France. Choose a spa with a sea view for the ultimate relaxation therapy.

Atmospheric

Dive into a few of Jersey’s signature experiences during your stay and create some unique memories. As an island, we just seem to have more sky than other destinations, so make the most of it by soaking up the starry nights - the clear North coast is the best for near dark sky star watching - or timing your first taste of Jersey’s local brew - Liberation Ale with a perfect sunset at St Ouen. Or why not take a fast RIB trip out to forgotten islands and reefs where you can walk for miles, spot dolphins and seals before heading back to circle Jersey’s coastline.

Cultural

Look closely and the whole history of Jersey is written into its landscape. How will you discover it? Find ancient standing stones - traces of Jersey’s neolithic past - within sight of the sea, and trace the footprints of invading armies through a 12th century castle to reach battlements overlooking the sea. Spot Jersey’s Martello Towers, built to keep the French at bay, and step back in time to the island’s occupation at Jersey War Tunnels. Add the finishing touches with a vintage bus tour around the island’s coastline.

Getting around
Find your way

Jersey may be small, but don’t underestimate its hidden depths. From winding ‘green lanes’ to scenic coastal touring routes, steep cliff top panoramas and cycle routes that hug the coast - if you’re keen to explore, you’ll find the journey just as much part of the experience as the destination. From rental cars to cycle hire, our local bus network or visitor bus tours, discover how easy it is to explore Jersey.
GETTING HERE

Driving

In Jersey, we drive on the left. The island’s speed limit is set to 40 mph / 64 km per hour and despite its small size, you’ll find plenty to explore with over 350 miles of paved road winding between fields, farms and along the coastline.

If you’re planning to drive in Jersey, you’ll need to hold a Certificate of Insurance or an International Green Card, a valid Driving Licence or International Driving Permit (UK International Driving Permits are not valid). Photocopies are not acceptable.

If you’re bringing your car, you’ll need to display a nationality place on the back of your vehicle.

GETTING AROUND

Public transport & taxis

Let someone else take the wheel and use Jersey’s network of public transport and taxis to navigate your way around the island. With easy to use and regular services linking the island’s main locations and attractions with the central bus station at Liberation Station, Jersey’s public transport and taxi network makes it easy to explore and go where you please. Most buses have easy access for wheelchair users.

Cycling

With a network of cycle routes that run beside the coast and along quiet country lanes, hire a bicycle and you’re free to explore. Our recommendation? Collect a cycle route map from our Visitor Centre and plan a route, with a picnic stop along the way. Pack your panniers with a picnic from La Belle Gourmande delicatessen in St Aubin or the Central Market in St Helier.

Tours

Not feeling so energetic? Sit back, relax and enjoy the view of Jersey’s coastal lanes and fishing villages with a coach tour from a modern fleet to beautifully restored open top vintage buses. With carefully chosen routes ranging from round-the-island tours to trips to attractions like Jersey War Tunnels or Durrell, getting there will be half the fun.

That’s right. Jersey’s small on size, but rich in off-the-beaten-track locations, making it perfect to explore on foot. Enjoy the freedom and uncover a whole island’s worth of unique perspectives and serendipitous discoveries from tree-lined country lanes that open out to spectacular sea views, or finding hidden-away bays and beaches all to yourself.
