St. Catherine’s Breakwater to Gorey Pier

Linear Walk

With its vivid views across to France, and vast structure St. Catherine’s Bay is a site to behold and a must see for any walker. There are plenty of picnic areas scattered on this walk for lunch with a serious view, or take a breather at the secluded bays of Archirondel and Anne Port. This walk hugs the coastline all the way to Gorey, a coastal town with a beach, plenty of shops and restaurants and the historic and towering Mont Orgueil Castle.
