La Rocque to La Hogue Bie Museum
Linear Walk

Heading inland from La Rocque, the south eastern point of the island, wind your way through the green lanes and granite farm houses of Grouville. Stop at the parish church at the half way point to take in the village scenery before making your way up Le Caillot towards La Hogue Bie Museum, a whimsical structure on top of a grassy hill. Learn about Jersey’s Neolithic past and relax in the grounds around the museum, the perfect location to enjoy a picnic hamper brim-full of local produce.
