Feel Revitalised at Fort Leicester
Spend your time in Jersey in your very own 19th century fort. There is no better way to invigorate your senses and love for island life than waking up with views over the picturesque harbour of Bouley Bay in Jersey’s National Park. Fort Leicester gives you the chance to step back in time. Sleeping 8 with views across the French coast, a private garden and terrace, it’s the perfect place to experience a Jersey summer from a unique viewpoint.
