

Plémont Bay to Corbière Lighthouse

Linear Walk

Walk the entire length of Jersey's Atlantic coast. Starting at the northern tip of Grosnez Point you will pass the horse racing course of Les Landes with stunning coastal views, before heading down to sea level. Take a little break with the freshest of seafood at Faulkner Fisheries or one of the many foodie stops along the way, before continuing onto La Pulente, either by path or beach (tide dependant). The final leg of this cliff path curves round the headland to the peaceful Petit Port, finishing at rugged coastal sights of Corbière Lighthouse, steeped with history from the Island's German Occupation in World War II.
